Hello, I am sending the following questionnaire to the people interested in purchasing a Miniature Bull Terrier from my kennel. Please complete the questionnaire and mail or email back to me.

Have you owned a Miniature or Standard Bull Terrier? If so, what became of it/them? *

Have you owned or do you own another breed of dog? Do you still have it/them? If not, what became of them? *

Are you familiar with Mini Bull Terrier behavioral traits? *

YES
NO

Are you aware of how much Mini Bulls like to chew (wood, plants, house)? *

NO

Do you spend long hours away from home? If so, how and where would the dog spend its days? *

Do you have a fenced yard or dog run? How do you plan to exercise this dog? *

How do you care for your dog when you travel? (kennel, family, friends, take with) *

Do you believe in training dogs? (beyond housebreaking) *

NO

Do you have animals other than dogs? If so, what? *

Socializing this dog is the most important thing you will do as a Mini Bull owner.

They need to play with and interact with other dogs, other than your own family and friends. They also need to socialize with many people from the time they're 3 months old until about 1 year of age. Puppy day care and socialization classes offered by Petco and Pet Smart are excellent ways. How do you plan to do this?

Do you have animals other than dogs? If so, what? *

Do you have children? What age? *

What attracted you to this breed? *

What purpose would this dog serve in your life? (e.g. companion, watch dog, breeding stock, show or obedience) *

Would you have this dog spay/neutered? *

NO

Would you please list two dog-knowledgeable references that I might contact? One could be your veterinarian. The other could be an instructor, breeder or friend that is "into dogs". *

Is everyone equally supportive of acquiring this dog? Who in the family would be primarily responsible for the dog's day to day care and training? *

Miniature Bull Terriers can live 10 to 14 years. A puppy chosen carefully, trained and socialized properly will be a wonderful companion for years to come.

This questionnaire is meant to help find the best puppy for your lifestyle. Your questions are welcome anytime. Please don't hesitate to call or email me.
